Distress-Self Sacrificing Work Assared of a Rich Reward Hereafter - Praise for the Needle.

(Copyright, 1900, by Louis Klopsch.) made while she was with them."

broidering her name ineffaceably into employer are constructed, the beneficence of the world. I see Amid the greatest triumphs in all her sitting in yonder home. In the ages and lands, I set down the con- denials, with prayers and tears, and doorway and around about the build- quests of the needle. I admit its then she dies. It is 15 years since she ing and in the room where she sits are crimes; I admit its cruelties. It has went away. Now the spirit of God the pale faces of the poor. She lis- had more martyrs than the fire; it descends upon that church, hundreds tens to their plaint, she pitles their has punctured the eye; it has pierced woe, she makes garments for them, the side; it has struck weakness into she adjusts the manufactured articles | the lungs; it has sent madness into to suit the bent form of this invalid | the brain; it has filled the potter's woman and to the cripple that comes | field; it has pitched whole armies of | crawling on his hands and knees. She | the suffering into crime and wretched- | I hear the echo of her footsteps in all gives a coat to this one, she gives san- ness and woe. But now that I am dals to that one. With the gifts she talking of Dorcas and her ministries mingles prayers and tears and Christ- to the poor, I shall speak only of the ian encouragement. Then she goes charities of the needle. This woman out to be greeted on the street corners | was a representative of all those who by those whom she has blessed, and make garments for the destitute, who all through the street the cry is heard, knit socks for the barefooted, who "Dorcas is coming!" The sick look prepare bandages for the lacerated, ments for others, some one will make her hand on the burning brow, and sionaries, who go into the asylums of ever wear—the robe for the grave. dressed them, and as she goes out the makes the lame man leap like a hart lane eyes haif put out with sin think and brings the dead to life, immortal they see a halo of light about her brow | health bounding in their pulses. What and a trail of glory in her pathway. a contrast between the practical be-That night a half paid shipwright nevolence of this woman, and a great climbs the hill and reaches home and deal of the charity of this day! This sees his little boy well clad and says, woman did not spend her time idly "Where did these clothes come from?" planning how the poor of the city of And they tell him, "Dorcas has been Joppa were to be relieved; she took here." In another place a woman is her needle and relieved them. She trimming a lamp. Dorcas brought the was not like those persons who sympaoil. In another place a family that thize with imaginary sorrows, and go Asleep in Jesus! Blessed sleep had not been at table for many weeks out in the street and laugh at the boy are gathered now, for Dorcas has who has upset his basket of cold vicbrought bread.

for many a day. Where is Dorcas?" | miserable howling! And one of these poor people goes up

The Miracle of Peter.

What demonstration of grief all about | slain? Dorcas, the benefactress, him! Here stand some of the poor I come now to speak of Dorcas, the knees and prays, and then he comes to cause Dorcas was dead. There are a ested in the comings and grants are unskilled laborers. But they natown. Of the Chinese who come to flushes; the eye opens; she sits upl disciple, Dorcas the benefactress, Dor- whole thing may be a falsehood and a tleman recently made an experiment.

in my text, I would have known this a grumbler ceasing to find fault. It is woman was a Christian. Such music only an idler stopped yawning. It is as that never came from a heart which only a dissipated fashionable parted is not chorded and strung by divine from his wine cellar, while on the grace. Before I show you the needle- other hand no useful Christian leaves work of this woman I want to show this world without being missed. you her regenerated heart, the source | The church of God cries out like the of a pure life and of all Christian prophet, "Howl, fir tree, for the cedar the fork and touched a thread of the charities. I wish that the wives and has fallen!" Widowhood comes and mothers and daughters and sisters of shows the garments which the depart- edge of his web, and the thread seall the earth would imitate Dorcas in ed had made. Orphans are lifted up to lected was on the other side. Over his her discipleship. Before you cross the look into the calm face of the sleeping wonderful telephone wires the buzzing sack close up, forming a complete threshold of the hospital, before you benefactress. Reclaimed vagrancy enter upon the temptations and trials comes and kisses the cold brow of her spider, but from his position he could of tomorrow, I charge you in the name who charmed it away from sin, and not tell along which particular line the of God and by the turmoil and turnult all through the streets of Joppa there of the judgment day, O women, that is mourning-mourning because Doryou attend to the first, last and great- cas is dead. When Josephine of France est duty of your life-the seeking for was carried out to her grave, there God and being at peace with him. were a great many men and women of When the trumpet shall sound, there pomp and pride and position that will be an uproar and a wreck of went out after her, but I am most afmountain and continent, and no hu- feeted by the story of history that on man arm can help you. Amid the that day there were ten thousand of rising of the dead and amid the boiling | the poor of France who followed her of yender sea and amid the live, leap- coffin, weeping and wailing until the ing thunders of the flying heavens air rang again, because when they lost calm and placid will be every wo- Josephine they lost their last earthly man's heart who hath put her trust in | friend. Oh, who would not rather Christ-calm potwithstanding all the have such obsequies than all the tears tumult, as though the are in the that were ever poured in the lachryheavens were only the gildings of an mals that have been exhumed from autumnal smeet, as though the peal of | facient cities? There may be no mass the trumpet were only the harmon of for the dead; there may be no costly of diet, he got on & again and danced getting rid of the pernicious object." method was adopted as the most effectan orehestre, as though the a ful surcophagus; there may be no slabe- with pleasure. It was evident that the The lady concented, and the doctor ive way of protecting the beautifull

tress. History has told the story of the crown; epic poet has sung of the verses full of the redolence of clover tops and a-rustle with the silk of the great writer put that "She sat up!" Dr. Talmage, who is still traveling | corn, has sung the praises of the plow. | Oh, what a time there must have been in northern Europe, has forwarded I tell you the praises of the needle. around that town when the apostle the following report of a sermon in | From the fig leaf robe prepared in the | which he atters helpful words to all garden of Eden to the last stitch taken | friends! How the tears of joy must who are engaged in alleviating human on the garment for the poor the needle have started! What a clapping of distresses and shows how such work has wrought wonders of kindness, genwill be crowned at the last; text, Acts erosity, and benefaction. It adorned singing! What laughter! Sound it ix, 39, "And all the widows stood by the girdle of the high priest, it fashhim weeping and showing him the | ioned the curtains in the ancient tabcoats and garments which Dorcas ernacle, it cushioned the chariots of King Solomon, it provided the robes of Joppa is the most absorbing city of Queen Elizabeth, and in high places the orient. Into her harbor once float- and in low places, by the fire of the ed the rafts of Lebanon cedar from pioneer's backlog and under the flash which the temples of Jerusalem were of the chandelier, everywhere, it has built, Solomon's oxen drawing the logs | clothed nakedness, it has preached | through the town. Here Napoleon had the gospel, it has overcome hosts of dies we are apt to think that his earth-500 prisoners massacred. One of the penury and want with the war cry of ly work is done. No. His influence on most magnificent charities of the cen- "Stitch, stitch, stitch!" The operaturies was started in this seaport by tives have found a livelihood by it, Dorcas, a woman with her needle em- and through it the mansions of the never stop. A Christian woman toils voice, as though an angel had ad- and hearing for the deaf, and which tuals, or like that charity which makes But there is a sudden pause in that a rousing speech on the benevolent woman's ministry. They say: "Where platform and goes out to kick the begis Dorcas? Why we haven't seen her gar from the step, crying, "Hush your

Woman's Benevolence.

and knocks at the door and finds the I am glad there is not a page of who understands the knack of the cormystery solved. All through the the world's history which is not a rec- dial bow. We smile back at her, and haunts of wretchedness the news ord of female benevolence. God says are glad that we have met her, even comes, "Doreas is sick!" No bulletin to all lands and people, Come now and though a crowd separated us from her. flashing from the palace gate telling hear the widow's mite rattle down into There is so much in her bow. It says the stages of a king's disease is more the poor box. The Princess of Conti as plainly as words possibly could: "It anxiously waited for than the news sold all her jewels that she might help is such a pleasure for me to see you. from this benefactress. Alas, for Jop- the famine stricken. Queen Blanche, even though it is just for a second." pa there is wailing, wailing. That the wife of Louis VIII. of France, And the best part of it all is that she voice which has uttered so many hearing that there were some persons is sincere in the impression she wishes cheerful words is hushed; that hand unjustly incarcerated in the prisons, to convey, for be it said right here and migrants have done much to build up be no 'next day' about it." Not a few which has made so many garments for went out amid the rabble and took a now, the cordial woman is the sincere the wealth of this country. Railroads of the older hunters would profit by acthe poor is cold and still; the star stick and struck the door as a signal woman. The cordial woman is the which had poured light into the mid- that they might all strike it, and down kind-hearted woman, the woman who night of wretchedness is dimmed by went the prison door, and out came likes to put people at their ease. And They are gregarious, have a taste for his father, who loved his guns and the blinding mists that go up from the the prisoners. Queen Maud, the wife one never finds cordiality and sarriver of death. In every forsaken of Henry I., went down amid the poor casm coupled in the same woman. I place in that town, wherever there is a and washed their sores and adminis- have made note of the lack of corsick child and no balm, wherever there tered to them cordials. Mrs. Retson, diality in women-and there is lackis hunger and no bread, wherever at Matagorda, appeared on the battlethere is guilt and no commiseration, field while the missiles of death were wherever there is a broken heart and flying around and cared for the woundno comfort, there are despairing looks ed. Is there a man or woman who and streaming eyes and frantic ges- has ever heard of the civil war in ticulations as they cry, "Dorcas is America who has not heard of the women of the sanitary and Christian commissions or the fact that before They send for the apostle Peter, who | the smoke had gone up from Gettyshappens to be in the suburbs of the burg and South Mountain the women place, stopping with a tanner of the of the north met the women of the name of Simon. Peter urges his way south on the battlefield, forgetting all through the crowd around the door their animosities while they bound up and stands in the presence of the dead. | the wounded and closed the eyes of the people, who show the garments which lamented. When death struck down this poor woman had made for them, that good woman, oh, how much sor-Their grief cannot be appeased. The row there was in the town of Joppa! apostle Peter wants to perform a I suppose there were women there miracle. He will not do it amid the with larger fortunes, women, perhaps, of all sincere emotion, says a writer in may be something in this, for they do such as is indicated this hunter has for excited crowd, so he orders that the with handsomer faces, but there was whole room be cleared. The doer is no grief at their departure like this shut against the populace. The apos- at the death of Dorcas. There was not the habit of indifference. I grant you of the time. They work diligently with deal of work. tle stands now with the dead. Oh, more turmoil and upturning in the that sometimes indufference saves one the pick and shovel, and the bosses it is a serious moment, you know, Mediterranean sea, dashing against a lot of petty cares that interest will make them perform prodigious tasks when you are alone with a lifeless the wharfs at that seaport, than there bring about, but somehow a woman with these simple implements. Probabody! The apostle gets down on his were surgings to and fro of grief be- seems the happier when she is inter- bly 80 per cent of the Italian immithe lifeless form of this one all ready great many who go out of life and are for the sepulcher, and in the strength unmissed. There may be a very large of him who is the resurrection he funeral, there may be a great many cries, "Tabitha, arise!" There is a carriages and a plumed hearse, there stir in the fountains of life; the heart | may be some high sounding eulogiums. flutters; the nerves thrill; the cheek | the bell may toll at the cemetery gate, there may be a very fine marble shaft We see in this subject Dorcas the reared over the resting place, but the cas the lamented, Dorcas the resurrect- sham. The church of God has lost nothing, the world has lost nothing. If I had not seen that word disciple It is only a nuisance abated. It is only TALMAGE'S SERMON. friends bursting through a gateway lars of the city and through the lonely buts of the mountain sien there will bursting the pountain sien there will be the mountain sien the sien there will be the mountain sien there will be the mountain sien the sien there will be the sien there will be the sien the sie at eventime with laughter and shout- huts of the mountain gien there will ing, "Dorcas the disciple!" Would be mourning, mourning, mourning, be-DRAWS A LESSON FROM A God that every Mary and every Martha would this day sit down at the feet of Jesus!

To Those Engaged in Alleviating Human

Plateers Self Presidence Work Asserted

To Those Engaged in Alleviating Human

Further, we see Dorcas the disciple: would be mourning, mourni

Resurrection of Dorcas. I speak to you of Dereas, the resurrected. The apostle came to where sword; the pastoral poet, with his she was and said, "Arise, and she sat up!" In what a short compass the brought her out among her old hands there must have been! What all through that lane! Shout it down that dark alley! Let all Joppa hear it! Dorcas is resurrected!

You and I have seen the same thing many a time; not a dead body resuscitated, but the deceased coming up again after death in the good accomplished. If a man labors up to fifty years of age, serving God, and then earth will continue till the world ceases. Services rendered for Christ for the upbuilding of a church through many anxieties, through many self of souls stand up and confees the faith of Christ. Has that Christian woman, who went away fifteen years ago, nothing to do with these things? I see the flowering out of her noble heart. the songs over sins forgiven, in all the prosperity of the church. The good that seemed to be buried has come up again. Dorcas is resurrected! After awhile all these womanly friends of Christ will put down their needle forever. After making garmercy. I do not know where you will sleep, nor what your epitaph will be, but there will be a lamp burning at that tomb, and an angel of God night no rude foot will disturb the dust. Sleep on sleep on! Soft bed. pleasant shadows, undisturbed repose!

From which none ever wake to weep!

THE CORDIAL WOMAN

Is Rare, for Women Are Slaves of

Sometimes, as we harry along the crowded streets we meet the woman that the because of it all lies in the fact that womankind is a bond slave toold fear of being "misunderstood." A thing-provided it is not carried too ity to "keep people at a distance." sayings and doings of others.

NEW KIND OF FLY. Spider, Fooled by Tuning Fork Danced on It.

An astonished, but apparently satisfied spider, was one upon which a gen-The result of his investigations is told in Public Opinion. While watching some spiders one day, it occurred to him to try what effect the sound of a tuning fork would have upon them. He had a strong suspicion that they would take it for the buzzing of a fly. Selecting a large, fat spider that had long been feasting on flies, he sounded spider's web. The owner was at one sound was conveyed to the watching sound was traveling. He ran to the center of the web in hot haste, and felt all round until he touched the thread against the other end of which the fork was sounding. Then, taking another thread along with him as a precautionary measure, he ran out to the fork and sprang upon it. At this point he found out his mistake. He ratreated for a short distance, and stopped to survey this new buesing creature which should have been a fly, things in the world." "But that stove period of worm buying, says the Robut was strangely unlike any insect he had ever seen. At length, apperently convinced that the object at the amount of money than your life. I will outer edge of his web was more suft- tell you what I'll do; I'll give you a a quart, and $260 was paid out to sevable for amusement than for an article snines for it, and find some war of eral hundred worm-pickers. This voices of the sky were but a group of rate mausoleum, but in the damp cel- sound of the fork was music to him.

BISHOP DOANE.

When Trinity College, Dublin, con- | Brooks' future church. When young up gratefully into her face as she puts who fix up boxes of clothing for misupon Rt. Rev. William Crosswell removed to Burlington, N. J. He was the lost and the abandoned start up the suffering and destitute, bearing You will have heard the last cry of Doane, according to its announced inwith hope as they hear her gentle that gospel which is sight for the blind pain. You will have witnessed the last tention, it will make the third time 1850, was ordained to the deaconate in rphanage. You will have come in the bishop of the diocese of Albany 1853, and advanced to the priesthood worn out from your last round of has been honored by educational in- in 1856. In 1863 he became rector of stitutions in Great Britain. He now St. John's church, Hartford, Conn. Afholds a similar degree from Oxford, ter four years he went to St. Peter's dent McKinley accepted the nomina- ra. Other passengers on the car were while Cambridge has dubbed him doc- church in Albany, and in 1869 was con- tion as "a summons to duty," adding: | slightly bruised and all were badly tor of laws. Bishop Doane is a son of secrated as first bishop of the new guarding it, and through all the long Boston, having been born there in Episcopal diocese of Albany. He has the office of president of the United 1832. His father, Rev. George Wash- been a great builder. The cathedral States, it is the responsibility which ington Doane, became the second bish- at Albany is his work, as is the St. op of New Jersey, and at his son's Agnes school for girls. He has also birth was rector of Trinity. Phillips | founded many charitable institutions.

OUR FOREIGN CITIZENS.

Wearly 3,000,000 Germans-Irish in All

great numbers, according to an article | "Mme, A., madame," said the servant

Occupations. Germans have come to America in in Ainslee's Magazine. The last census stated we had 2,784,894 Germans, and they have been of incalculable benefit industrially. They have made some of our best tradesmen, they sup- | Some Practical Advice From an Old ply skilled artisans and have introduced and monopolized many manufactures. They are also famous farm- point which must be carefully attended ers and gardeners. To them we par- to: Never under any circumstances tially owe the fact Americans are a lay away your gun at night without music-loving people. Illinois has near- cleaning it. Never mind how tired you ly 350,000 German citizens. Irish im- are, attend to it at once. There should and other great public works have cepting this advice. The veteran quotbeen built through their personal toil. ed above says he got this idea from politics and in large and small ways dogs almost as well as he loved his enjoy the independence to accumulate | children. The old man gave his boy a and spend which they were denied at | single barreled muzzle loader, which home. Their occupations range all was for many a day the youngster's and have quite come to the conclusion | the way from laboring on the streets | treasure of treasures, and was never to millionaire financiering. The Irish allowed to get rusty. Before being put | duced bicycle cars, which have taken | the residence of Captain John Roach farmers of this land are among the away for the winter it was carefully the place of the cumbersome and of the Muncie police department. Mrs. conventionality. Many times she will most prosperous and valuable to the cleaned and oiled and was once in a heavy old fashioned handcars, and ac- Roach and two small daughters were not be as frankly cordial as her heart | community. Italians constitute an im- | while taken down and examined. If a | cording to the railroad men, the bi- | at home alone. The building was fired prompts her to be because of that grim portant part of our foreign popula- speck of rust appeared anywhere it cycle cars are giving excellent satis- in two places. The two children were tion, and as they are still coming in was at once removed. After an outing faction. These cars are generally used injured while fleeing from the burnregard for conventionality is a good great numbers their presence is the among wild pigeons, squirrel or grouse for road inspection, yet heavy loads ing building. Several colored men cause of much interesting speculation. he removed the barrel from the stock, can be carried on them when neces- who were seen lounging around the far. It is not unwomanly or unmaid- In 1890 the Italians were only 182,580. swabbed it out with hot water and sary. The bicycle car is made of the Roach residence are suspected. enly to be honestly cordial. There are Of these 118,106 were in the north At- wiped it out with a clean rag. Then regulation tubing and contains two some women, that you and I have met, lantic states; 4,894 in the south Atlan- he fired a little powder, just to be sure drop frames side by side, connected by who pride themselves upon their abil- | tic; 21.837 in the north central; in the | that no moisture was left, after which | tubing, and having four wheels. The south central, 12.314, and in the west, an oil rag was used assiduously. Then wheels are made of sheet steel, with Some one may have preached you a lit- ern, 24,914. There is a general impres- stock and barrel were rejoined and the tle sermon about how necessary and sion that these Italians, most of them weapon was put away for the night. beautiful is "poise of manner in a wo- men, come here to work hard for a few | The breech-loader is much less | The machines complete weigh between man." But poise of manner does not | years and then to go back to live in | troublesome, but the same principle | mean, or should not mean, the stiffing easy idleness on their savings. There obtains in both cases. By using care easily lifted from the track to make the New York Tribune. Take care go back and forth a great deal. These fourteen years kept a gun in first class lest in cultivating poise you drop into Italians are the public-works laborers | condition, though it has done a great take to other things kindly. They bave actually driven the negroes out of the bootblacking field, and even the Irish porters now at the best hotels no longer have a monopoly of polishing the boots of the guests. They are an amiable people, and apt to be law-abiding.

Facts About the Hydra These are the pleasant ways of the fresh water hydra: If you cut him in two, each half promptly lengthens into a complete hydra. Turn him inside out and in a few hours his skin is his stomach and his stomach is his skin. and he is ready to do business as before. The hydra is scarcely more than a bag with feelers about the mouth of it. It can replace a feeler in twenty hours. It makes a somewhat longer jeb when its body is cut in two but is equally successful. If cut in two lengthwise, the cut sides of each half onem. If cut in two lengthwise each end matches itself more slowly, with a new head or tail, as may be needed

Where the Stove Went. A fashionable French physiciar called lately on one of his patients, Baroness de M., who was complaining of headache and general prostration. "I will tell you what is the matter with you, madam," he said promptly: "it is that American stove you have over there. These coal-burning stoves are cost me £5!" protested the baroness. "Never mind that; better lose any the patient, who thought of changing of the peets, ther residence, went out to inspect suite of rooms, and the first thing that met her gaze was the stove. "Who lives here?" she asked of the servant who was showing her over the rooms. respectfully-"Dr. B's mother-in-law!"

CARE OF A GUN.

Hunter. A veteran hunter lays this down as a

In New York's Chinatown. Echoes of the boxer troubles in Chi- machine for the first time. na are being heard in New York's Chithis country only a very small proportion have any intention of making it their permanent abiding place. To them the American is still a "foreign devil" to be despised and bated, though regarded with a salutary fear. course, any indication of ill-feeling toward the Americans would bring down swift and condign punishment, so the residents of Pell and Doyer streets conduct themselves with making matters unpleasant for their fellows who are known to be in sympathy with American ideas.-New York Sun.

Rope for Government Ships.

Nearly all the rope used by the United States navy is manufactured in the government ropewalk at the Charleston navy yard. The plant has just been thoroughly overhauled and electrical motive power has been installed there. At the time of the outbreak of the Spanish war the government ropewalk had been allowed to deteriorate, and the navy department was obliged to buy large quantities of supplies outside, but the improvements made since then, at a cost of over $100,000, have so that it is now one of the largest in the world.

One Method of Saving Trees. The most novel street sight ever witnessed in Saratoga ended at 9 o'clock last night, when the forestry commitreservoirs of poison, the deadliest tee of the village closed a five hours' chester Post-Express. Several sugar barrels of the squirming forest tent caterpillars were purchased at 20 cents removed the stove. A few days later foliage of Saratoga against the ravages

That He Has Been Nominated for President.

WAS A BIG DAY AT CANTON.

Selections from the Chairman's Speech-Mr. McKinley's Reply-Gov. Roosevel! at Oyster Bay, N. Y., Also Hears Officially of His Nomination.

The second notification of William McKinley that he had been selected as for president was made at Canton, O., the first, and all the accessories were Then the chairman of the committee was Senator John M. Thurston of Nebraska, who had been permanent chairman of the convention. Today, Senator Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts was the spokesman. All Canton turned out to witness the ceremonies which took place on the famous front representing every state in the union | ias, in eastern Indiana, was establishand the organized territories of the ed at Muncie with 400 charter mem-United States, was duly appointed to bers by Imperial Prince of the United announce to you, formally, your nomi- States of America C. A. Hinsley of nation by the Republican national Chicago. Special trains brought in convention, which met in Philadelphia | more than 1,000 visiting members and on June 19 last, as the candidate of a grand street parade, with an elabothe Republican party for president of rate fireworks display, was a feature the United States for the term begin- of the evening. After the obligatory ning March 4, 1901.

Senator Lodge said, in part:

higher significance and make it an even deeper expression of honor and trust than usual. With the exception of the period in which Washington organized the nation and built the state, and of those other awful years when Lincoln led his people through the agony of civil war, and saved from destruction the work of Washington, there never has been a presidential

"If anything exceeds the honor of shaken up. attaches to it. Having been invested al trial, cannot contemplate assuming realizing the severe exactions and the solemn obligations which it imposes, and this feeling is accentuated by the momentous problems which now press for settlement."

Roosevelt Also Notified. Governor Roosevelt also was officially notified of his nomination for the vice-presidency at his country home, Sagamore, near Oyster Bay.

The notification committee appointed by the Republican convention at Philadelphia left New York on a special train at 10:30 o'clock and made a quick run to Oyster Bay where carriages were in waiting to convey them to Sagamore A number of the members of the notification committee were not present. Several invited guests accompanied the party, most of them promit the deal is said to be $800,000. gent New Yorkers.

Bicycle Cars.

are covered with solid rubber tires. seventy and eighty pounds, and can be way for an approaching train. The machines are all ball bearing, and are generally geared from eighty to ninety-six. There is no steering, of course, and this will confuse the average wheelman when he mounts the Road Poll Tax. The Michigan division of the League of American Wheelmen is preparing a bill for introduction in the legislature providing for a road poll tax, says the Detroit Free Press. It will provide that every able-bodied man in the state between and inclusive of the ages of 21 and 60 shall pay this tex, and the receipts will be used to build and repair roads in the county in which it is collected and where the petitioners for such roads will agree to pay their whole road taxes in cash instead of in work. The plan has received satisfactory approval.

Studies Missing Link. Prof. Ernst Haeckel, the distinguished German naturalist at Jena, though 66 years of age, has decided to make once more the long trip to Java and the Celebes, where he will spend the winter studying the fossil anthropoid ape, some remains of which were found not long ago in those islands. hopes to beable to show that this monkey is the missing link between dryo- jured. pithecus, the extinct anthropoid, and man. With this discovery he is willing to close his scientific researches.

A Prominent Attorney. Robert A. Friedrich, United States atterney for one of the three new districts of Alaska, has hitherto held that position for the whole territory. He in the Union army at the age of 18 in 1862 though his parents were slaveowners and ardent Democrats. In 1879 to Ora V. Pogue of Pendleton, and it he moved to Kansas and seen became! will be changed from a Republican to prominent, in Topeka, where he was an independent paper, lieutenant-colonel, brigadier-general National Guard of that state.

A WEEK IN INDIANA.

RECORD OF HAPPENINGS FOR SEVEN DAYS.

Woman Takes Away Her Nicoe-Mrs. Mollie Stephan, of Chicago, Charged with Abduction - Wealthy Warsaw Farmer Kills Himself.

Woman Takes Away Her Niece. Mrs. Mollie Stephan went to Shelbyville from Chicago and arranged to take with her to Chicago Carrie Meikel, 15 years old, daughter of Mrs. Harry Meikel, her divorced sister. Meikel, hearing of this, procured a restraining the nominee of the Republican party order from Judge Morris. This was served on Mrs. Stephan, who informed on Thursday, at the same place as the sheriff that she would drop the matter. The officer had hardly got out similar to the occasion four years ago. of sight, however, until Mrs. Stephan, with the girl, left for the depot, and boarded the train for Chicago. Word was telephoned the Chicago authorities and the woman will be returned here to answer to the charge of abduction and for contempt of court.

Temple Is Started at Muncie. The first temple Knights of Khoras-"Mr. President: This committee, san auxilliary to the Knights of Pythwork was concluded by the Sidney, O., "This nomination comes to you, sir, team an elaborate banquet was given. under circumstances which give it a Plates were laid for 500 at first table.

Collision at Indianapolls.

A collision between a Blake street car and eight freight cars attached to a Big Four engine at the West street crossing of the Big Four railroad switch, near Military Park, Indianapolis, resulted in the serious injury of several passengers. The injured are: Matthews, J. B.: Dransfield, Mrs. An na; Suylock, Miss Grovie; Suylock, Miss Replying to Senator Lodge, Presi- Daisy: Maley, F. O.; Dugan, Mrs. No-

Man Shot Sucs for Damages. with both, I do not underappraise Reese at Lebanon for $20,000 damages either. Any one who has borne the for personal injuries. Recse shot anxieties and burdens of the presiden- | Campbell in the back and abdomen tial office, especially in time of nation- last April as he was walking along the road, firing the shots from a buggy, it a second time without profoundly | They reside on adjoining farms and had disagreed over church and domestic affairs. Campbell has not fully recovered and alleges permanent injuries. Reese is a union veteran and owns one of the best farms in Boone

> Deal in Oil Land Reported. A deal is said to be practically completed by which the Mississinnewa Mining company disposes of its Marion natural gas plant and 20,000 acres of the most valuable undeveloped gas and oil territory in the state, surrounding Marion, to the Indianapolis Gas company. A report is current that the Indianapolis company is purchasing the property for the Standard Oil company. The consideration in Burn Police Captain's Home.

After three attempts within a week Several of the railroads have intro- incendiaries succeeded in destroying

> Men Assail an Old Soldier. J. M. Candless, an old soldier, who has been practicing magnetic healing at Vincennes, was found unconscious in the street at Vincennes, and died soon afterward. He had been assaulted by unknown persons, who fractured Farmer Drinks Carbolic Acid. William Davis, once a wealthy farmer, living three miles south of Warsaw. committed suicide by taking carbolic acid. He had lost his large fortune re-

General State News. Seiners are playing havoc with fish in Wayne county. The smallpox at Anderson has been stamped out John Zeller, a young business man of Brazil dropped dead. H. F. C. Neitert, a pioneer of Ft. Wayne, eighty years old, is dead.

Drilling for oil is being rapidly pushed in the vicinity of Fortville. Miss Rebecca Geller of Knox, attempted suicide with carbolic acid. The gambling and wine rooms at Anderson have again been closed by the police.

The Franco-Belgian carnival at Matthews will begin on the 23d inst. lasting one week.

The Rev. F. S. Chapman of Kirkville. Mo., has accepted a call to the St. Paul's P. E. church at Jefferson-

Jay Collins and Teddy Mene attempted to jump from a moving train at Basslake, and Mene was fatally in-The three-year-old daughter of Mrs.

James Borders, near Indian Springs, was burned to death while playing with matches. The City Light and Power Company of Dunkirk, has been incorporated. Capital stock $8,000. The Wabash Valley Protective Association is being organized with is a Kentuckian by birth, and enlisted | headquarters at Andrews, D. E. Purviance is president. The Fortville Tribune has been sold and adjutant-general in turn in the fied dealers that the discharge of fireworks will not be permitted in the business sections of the city.

The Anderson authorities have noti-